PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

It is a privilege to serve Indian Division of the International Academy of Pathology (IAP-ID). Over the past two decades, our society has thrived under the stewardship of dedicated leaders. We have experienced growth through successful membership drives, yet we now aim to reconnect with former members and welcome new post-graduates to join our journey.

At IAP-ID, our mission is to elevate pathology education, a commitment we uphold steadfastly. Historically, our focus has been on nurturing the knowledge of students and pathologists across India. Esteemed national and international experts have generously enriched our academic endeavours. Moving forward, we are committed to building upon this strong foundation while enhancing opportunities for current and future pathologists.

Our members are the heart of IAP-ID, and it is collectively our responsibility to advance and enrich our path. While our academic sessions draw strong attendance, our goal is to broaden the platform for sharing profound pathology insights. The realm of pathology holds crucial implications for clinical medicine, and our aim is to empower young pathologists to apply this knowledge for the benefit of patients and clinicians alike.

Reflecting on the success of our last Annual Conference at AIIMS New Delhi, which attracted a large gathering of postgraduates and pathologists from across India, we are invigorated for the year ahead. Our recent Mid-Year Teaching program on "Head and Neck Cancers: Morphology, Virology, Molecular Characteristics, Artificial Intelligence, and Beyond" received overwhelming participation, setting a promising tone for future events. We eagerly anticipate the upcoming Annual CME at Choksi Auditorium TMH Mumbai, organized by Dr Anita Borges and team, focusing on "The Endometrium for Surgical Pathologist."

Looking ahead to December 12th, 2024, our annual conference promises another enriching experience with a guest lecture by Prof. K. N. Naresh, followed by a slide seminar on "The mighty little Vermiform Appendix: Its Pathology and Frontiers" moderated by Dr Usha Kini from Bengaluru, and a symposium on "Salivary Gland Pathology: Solving difficult cases," moderated by Prof. Nalini Gupta from Chandigarh

This year marks an opportunity for collective growth and contribution. Let us celebrate our journey, foster collaboration in science and technology, and cultivate compassion within our community and beyond.

Please share your thoughts on improving IAP-ID at any of the email contacts - reenimalik@yahoo.co.in; sujayprasad@mac.com;

SECRETARY & TREASURER'S COLUMN

Dear Friends,

The year 2023 was a very successful year for IAP-ID as we organized par excellence academic events, thanks to Tata Medical Center, Kolkata where the Mid Year Teaching program was held, followed by Annual CME organized by Fortis, Mumbai. I congratulate Dr Paromita Roy from Tata Medical Center Kolkata and Dr Kirti Chadha from Metropolis Healthcare Ltd Mumbai, for their efforts. The academic events of 2023 came to an end with the Annual Conference of IAP-ID organized by Dr Venkatesh Iyer and Dr Prasanjit Das, at AIIMS, New Delhi on 7th December 2023 which was a grand success. The guest lecture " My Journey through the world of IgG4 Related diseases" and the Slide Seminar on "In the Realm of Genetic Mutations and fusions the hematoxylin and eosin stain reigns supreme" by the foreign guest speaker Dr Vikram Deshpandey from Haward Medical School was highly illuminating.

The Slide Seminar conducted by Dr Pradeep Vaideshwar and the Symposium by Dr Uttara Chatterjee on "Unravelling the Mediastinal mysteries" and "Hereditary and Familial Cancer Predisposition Syndromes" respectively were very interesting and informative. They and their team of speakers Dr Megha Uppin, Dr Anila KR, Dr Deepali Jain, Dr Rajiv Kaushal, Dr Chandramouleeswari, Dr Pragati Sathe, Dr Nuzhat Hussain, Dr Mukta Ramadwar, Dr Seema Kaushal, Dr Anila Sharma, Dr Debdutta Basu gave very educative presentations.

The new year also added another feather in our cap as the Mid Year Teaching program was successfully organised by Dr Neeraj Kumari and Dr Shruti Gupta under the leadership of Dr Arvind Rajwanshi on "Head and Neck Cancers Morphology, Virology. Molecular Characteristics ." There was a workshop on HPV testing and all the lectures and workshop was very well attended by many delegates.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr Sujay Prasad ,President IAP-ID for always guiding me and giving me timely advises at each step. I am short of words to thank Dr Francisco Couto who has always been my guiding angel. I will fail in my duties if I do not acknowledge his invaluable help in the preparations of this News Letter.

The experience and expertise of both Dr Sujay Prasad and Dr Francisco Couto and Dr Anita Bhaduri Past President IAP-ID has helped IAP-ID to improve its working and reach new heights.

Dr Shilpa Prabhudesai with her team is taking all pains and efforts to make this CME a grand success. The invited expert faculty shall be discussing all the current aspects of Endometrial Pathology including the Recent classification, Molecular testing and Reporting of Endometrial Carcinoma. The details of the programme and registration are on the website.

I request all members to participate in large numbers in the academic activities of IAP-ID as the content, speakers and topics are always outstanding and the basics, recent advances and the molecular aspects are covered by the experts in a very elaborate way.
